

Teens, tell us what you think!

Want a new place to hang out with your friends?

(a safe place for your teenager)

Interested in teen-only nights?

(a friendly social environment)

Looking for teen gaming?

(entertainment that can span language and customs)

Need homework help?

(information navigation by professional staff)

How about book clubs just for you?

(discussion and exploration of ideas)

Teens and parents, help make your new St. Cloud Public Library the place for teens. Meet with your friends on March 29 to give us your suggestions on materials and activities you want in the new and improved teen space.

Free pizza and pop!

Saturday, March 29
11:30 am – 1:00 pm

St. Cloud Public Library, Meeting Rm. B

(Parking is free on weekends)

A session for 6-9th graders and a session for parents give you the chance to share your thoughts and help shape the future of the library.

Please register by Wednesday, March 26 by calling the Central Minnesota Community Foundation reservation line at 257-0251 or by emailing Reservations@CommunityGiving.org.
